The people are chatting away and eating all variations of meats and pub food....

Smoky, meaty ribs, are being pulled apart by greedy hands. The meat gnashed between filthy teeth. People talk with their mouths full.

The chef stares out at his satisfied customers with a beaming and prideful smile from the service window. His arm dangling from the top of the frame as he leans on the window.

A very rare cut of meat is placed in front of a patron. They are very excited. They cut into the juicy meat with gusto and shove it in their mouths....

Their faces are that of immense satisfaction.

A young couple are looking over the menu. The sultry waitress comes over to take their order. The young man points to a burger and the young woman points to the veal. She taps her finger on "very rare" and smiles.

The waitress smiles back and runs off to place their order.

INT. TRENDY PUB EATERY - KITCHEN - CONTINUOUS

The waitress brings the order to the chef. He looks at it and smiles. He walks away from the window. But the arm we assumed was his is still hanging in the window....

A trickle of blood comes down the forearm.

INT. TRENDY PUB EATERY - CORNER BOOTH

The young couple is excited as the waitress comes back to their table. She places a hamburger in front of the man who smiles and nods thanks....

In front of the young woman...

A large plater, full of lettuce, and on top of the lettuce...

A human baby. Crying.

The man takes a bite of his burger. We can see now the burger looks like a human hand. It's a HANDburger.

CUT TO:

BLACK - AUDIO ONLY

The baby is still crying and a big thud is heard. The crying stops. Meaty, juicy, gnawing noises are heard.

CUT TO:

CLOSE UP - YOUNG WOMAN

Bright red blood smeared across her face. She is in ecstasy. She mouths the word "Yum" as if she was having a chocolate brownie and not a human baby.

END.
